

- A. Mutually finalise the training (including the curriculum, duration etc.) course to be designed by EUPHORIA, eligibility criteria, Training Schedule along with the proposed starting date of such programmes and evaluation process.
- B. Jointly chalk out the Go-to-market strategy including identification of Marketing Materials to create awareness among prospective candidates for these training programmes.
- C. Co-operate in promoting the training programmes and external communication proposed to be made and shared with a third party. OCAC will not make, distribute or circulate any marketing material, course ware, statement or communication to the outside world on any aspect of the training and course programme without prior written consent of EUPHORIA.
- D. After successful completion of the course, each successful trainee shall be provided with a course completion certificate by OCAC.

Clause 5 : Responsibilities of EUPHORIA

EUPHORIA shall:-

- A. Designing course outline in consultation with OCAC.
- B. Providing licensed version of required software/educational kit.
- C. Providing authorized trainers for conducting the program.
- D. All the courseware should be submitted/ handover to the OCAC Training Division prior to the training conducted by the collaborative training partner, so that the training kit/courseware can be provided to the trainee at the beginning/commencement of the course.
- E. Evaluation of the students.
- F. Co-operate with OCAC for smooth running of the training programmes.
- G. Not run the same collaborative courses offered by OCAC at any other center in Bhubaneswar.

Clause 6 : Financial

The cost of estimation for running each of such training programmes shall be worked out jointly by OCAC and EUPHORIA on the basis of scope and deliverables. Details relating to